ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 18, 1906.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent, medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women are men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff but not one but Newb's Herpicide tell you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newb's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Southern Presbyterians.

The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church, composed of 210 commissioners from all parts of the Southern States, convened at the First Presbyterian Church in Greenville, S. C. yesterday. The retiring moderator Rev. J. T. Plunkett, of Augusta, Ga., delivered the annual sermon.

Dr. Plunkett took as his text "Pilate saith unto Him, What is truth? (John xviii, 38). He said, in part:

"The attitude of our age toward the Bible is a vital question. What are the signs of the time? What are men saying about the book? As we interpret the spirit of our age, what conclusion do we reach? Ours is an age of unrest. Higher criticism, new theology, new psychology, German philosophy, French speculation, scientific investigation are terms we are all familiar with. The meaning of it is that rationalism is rampant and that our age on its spiritual side is an age of doubt.

"I recognize that criticism is legitimate and necessary. I confess I am troubled at the spirit of that class of critics which comprehensively we call the destructive school.

"What is the effect of this criticism upon the authority of our Lord? He knew the Scripture of the Old Testament. He had learned them at his mother's knee and in the rabbinical schools. His memory was saturated with them. Christ's indorsement of the Old Testament Scripture was emphatic, without hesitation, exception or reservation. There is no escape from the issue. If modern criticism is true, Christ was the greatest false teacher and deceiver. If Christ taught God's truth, then this criticism is false. For myself, I had rather stand for Christ against the critics than with the critics against Christ.

"What is the effect of such criticism upon the people? It is agreed that our age is becoming more and more materialistic. Its not the cry going up everywhere throughout the church, 'Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation'?"

"I am not for those who believe the ark of God will be taken; but I do very sadly fear the destroying influence of this critical spirit upon the ministry and upon the people. I shall not presume to forecast the action of this assembly upon any question; but I do pray the Holy Ghost may deeply impress every one with the paramount importance of the things I have been saying, and today by the altars of our ancestral faith we renew our vows of subscription to the gospel of our forefathers, in every book and chapter and sentence and word, the inspired oracles of God, 'the pillar and stone of truth.'"

A Sad Scene.

At the end of a weary two-mile walk, Rose Goldberg, eight years old, laid her two-year-old brother down at the County Hospital in Chicago yesterday and asked in broken English that he be admitted for treatment. The clerk looked at the baby face and then at the girl in wonder. The infant was dead.

Rose is the daughter of Joseph Goldberg, a shoemaker, who came from Russia three months ago. The girl has been the only nurse for two younger children. Yorkie, the baby, was taken with measles and whooping cough, and neighbors at length prevailed upon the family to have it taken to the hospital.

With the few English words at her command, Rose inquired the way to the county institution. As she plodded on with her heavy burden, the baby's complaints became less and less, and at last ceased altogether, but the little girl felt no fear.

It required considerable explanation to persuade the girl that the baby was past medical aid and could not be received. Then she quietly lifted the body and started for the door, intending to return with it in her arms to her father's house. The hospital authorities, with difficulty, convinced her this would not do, and that the body must be taken to the county morgue.

Rose would not relinquish her burden to other arms even then. Weeping, she carried the child to the morgue, in the south part of the group of buildings.

Fatal Fight in a Canoe.

W. A. Thompson and Isador Bouchard, employed on the line of the Trans-Continental Railway, are dead in Helen Lake, on the north shore of Lake Superior, and their deaths were without exception the most tragic that ever occurred in that district.

While in a canoe half a mile from shore the men engaged in combat, and the craft was capsized. They climbed to the top of the upturned canoe and continued a hand-to-hand struggle which lasted nearly thirty minutes, when they sank from exhaustion and were drowned.

Some weeks ago Thompson and Bouchard became involved in a quarrel over a girl. Lately they called on the young woman at the same time. Soon after they put off in a canoe, ostensibly to rejoin a surveying party, and soon afterward they were seen astride their overturned canoe fighting with all the strength they possessed.

A fisherman and another man, half a mile away, were the only ones to witness the death struggle. Bouchard was the

OPERATION AVOIDED

EXPERIENCE OF MISS MERKLEY

She Was Told That an Operation Was Inevitable. How She Escaped It.

When a physician tells a woman suffering with serious feminine trouble that an operation is necessary, the very thought of the knife and the operating table strikes terror to her heart, and our hospitals are full of women coming for just such operations.

There are cases where an operation is the only resource, but when one considers the great number of cases of menacing female troubles cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after physicians have advised operations, no woman should submit to one without first trying the Vegetable Compound and writing Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice, which is free.

Miss Margaret Merkley, of 275 Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "Loss of strength, extreme nervousness, shooting pains through the pelvic organs, bearing down pains and cramps compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor, after making an examination, said I had a female trouble and ulceration and advised an operation. To this I strongly objected and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The ulceration quickly healed, all the bad symptoms disappeared and I am once more strong, vigorous and well."

Female troubles are steadily on the increase among women. If the monthly periods are very painful, or too frequent and excessive—if you have pain or swelling low down in the left side, bearing-down pains, don't neglect yourself, try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

first to go down. A minute later Thompson toppled from the canoe and disappeared from view.

To Pray for Editors.

Ministers were exhorted to take a lesson from the modern newspaper by Bishop Samuel Fallows, in a sermon delivered at the evening session of the general council of the Reformed Episcopal Church in Philadelphia yesterday. The bishop said that the press in some respects had superseded the pulpit, and now exercises many of the functions which the pulpit has lost.

The bishop said the press has been the faithful ally of the pulpit in breaking down caste, in favoring humanitarian reforms, and in advocating the rights of all.

"When the prayer book was first compiled," he said, "journalism had scarcely begun its existence. Hence, no mention is made of editors in the enumerated list of persons needing the prayers of the church. No revision ought to be deemed complete which does not include them for no class required more intercession of the saints."

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says A. C. Stickle, of Miletus W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at E. S. Lechman & Sons' drugstore.
